Version:	1.0

The registered provider of the Foundation and ELICOS programs is The University of Queensland (CRICOS Code 00025B). UQ College Ltd will deliver the Foundation and ELICOS programs on behalf of The University of Queensland pursuant to a third-party arrangement notified by the parties to the Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency.

Purpose and Scope

This policy outlines the arrangements for assessing refunds for students of the Foundation Program and applies to all prospective, current and former students in the Foundation Program (commencing from January 2022).

Exclusions

The following categories of refund are not covered by this procedure:

- Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) cancelled after arrival in Australia. International students should consult their OSHC provider about refund provisions.

NOTE: Neither the procedures below nor the UQC Student Grievance Resolution Process remove the right of a student to take action under Australia's Consumer Protection laws or to pursue other legal remedies.

Process and Key Controls

- Eligible students (or their agent/parent/guardian) must apply in accordance with this Procedure for a refund to be considered and processed by UQC.
- To process a refund application a student must have an amount in credit in their student account.
- The Senior Manager Corporate Services, UQC, has primary responsibility for managing the student fees function at UQC, including authorising refunds.
- UQC will process refund requests within 28 calendar days of receiving a valid student refund application. If information required from a student to process an application is not complete or correct, the processing timeframe will commence once the required information is received.
- Unless stated in this Student Fees and Refunds Policy and Procedure, administrative fees and charges, including the Enrolment Fee, Student Services Fee, and Textbooks and Materials Fee, will not be refunded on the cancellation of enrolment.
- All bank, foreign currency exchange and transaction fees will be incurred by the student.
- Any outstanding fees owed to UQ College will be deducted from any approved refund.
- Refunds will be issued to the bank account or credit card account from which the fees payment was made.
- Students have a right to seek a review of a refund decision in accordance with Section 5 of this Procedure.

1. Policy

- 1.1 UQC Student Refunds Policy and Procedure – Foundation Program, operates in compliance with the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000, and the ESOS Tuition Protection Services and Other Measures Act 2012.
- 1.2 The Student Fees and Refunds Policy will be provided to students in their Letter of Offer/Enrolment Agreement and is also available on the UQC website.

2. Student Fees

- 2.1 All Foundation Program fees published on the UQC website and in marketing materials are subject to review annually.
- 2.2 UQC has no control over the fees set by The University for undergraduate programs, or the changes that may occur to these.
- 2.3 Students accept liability for the payment of their Foundation Program fees and are required to pay fees in two instalments by the due dates specified in their offer letter
- 2.4 The second fees instalment is payable unless a student cancels their enrolment in writing prior to the due date for payment.

3. Eligibility for Refunds

- 3.1 A full refund of all fees paid will be made where an application for a visa is refused by Australian immigration authorities and a student is unable to commence the Foundation Program due to the visa refusal. Certified evidence of the visa refusal is required within two weeks from the date of notice.
- 3.2 Any student who cancels an enrolment in the Foundation Program more than three (3) calendar months prior to the scheduled commencement of the Program will have the prepaid tuition fees refunded in full. The Student Services Fee and the Textbooks and Materials Fee will also be refunded in full.
- 3.3 Any student who cancels an enrolment in the Foundation Program between one (1) and three (3) calendar months prior to the scheduled commencement of the Program will have the prepaid tuition fees refunded.
- 3.4 Any student who cancels an enrolment less than one (1) calendar month prior to the scheduled commencement of the Foundation Program, or after the Program has commenced, is not eligible for a refund of any fees paid.
- 3.5 A refund is not payable where UQC cancels a student's enrolment in the following circumstances:
  - 3.5.1. UQC withdraws an international student's offer of a place in the Foundation Program or cancel's an international student's enrolment in the Foundation Program, due to the provision of incomplete or incorrect information in an application for admission. In this case the cancellation charge will be applied as per 3.2 – 3.4 above.

3.5.2. UQC cancels a student's enrolment in the Foundation Program under the UQC Student Misconduct Policy. In this case no fees paid by the student are refunded.

- 3.6 Any student who is provisionally enrolled in the Foundation Program on condition of presenting evidence of meeting English language proficiency requirements and cannot achieve the required condition, will have the prepaid tuition fees refunded in full. The Student Services Fee and the Textbooks and Materials Fee will also be refunded in full.
- 3.7 The second fees instalment is payable unless a student cancels their enrolment prior to the due date. No refund of any second instalment fees paid is payable after the payment due date.
- 3.8 Any international student who becomes an Australian citizen or permanent resident, or a New Zealand citizen, during their enrolment in the Foundation Program and subsequently cancels their enrolment, no fees paid by the student are refunded. The student may complete the Foundation Program; however the offer of guaranteed admission to the University of Queensland will be withdrawn.
- 3.9 In the unlikely event that UQC is unable to deliver the Foundation Program in full, a student will be offered enrolment in an alternative program, or they will be offered a refund of all unspent prepaid tuition fees paid for the study period in which the default occurs and any tuition fees paid in advance for future studies in the Program. If UQC is unable to deliver the program that has been paid for and does not offer students an alternative program that they accept, or pay a refund of unspent prepaid tuition fees, the Australian Government's Tuition Protection Service (TPS) will assist students to find an alternative program or to get a refund, if a suitable alternative is not found.

4. Applications for Refunds

- 4.1 Students (or parent/guardian if student is under 18 years of age) applying for a refund must submit an online Cancellation form via the UQC Student Portal.
- 4.2 UQC will process refund requests within 28 calendar days of receiving a valid student refund application. If information required from a student to process an application is not complete or correct, the processing timeframe will commence once the required information is received.
- 4.3 Where a student provides documentary evidence clearly demonstrating that compelling or compassionate circumstances apply, a refund of fees will be at the discretion of UQC and will be consistent with the UQC Student Fees and Refunds Policy and Procedure – Foundation Program.

NB. Compelling and compassionate circumstances are generally those beyond the control of the student and which have an impact upon the student's academic progress or well-being. These include, but are not limited to:

- i. Serious illness or injury.
- ii. Bereavement of close family members such as parents, siblings, or grandparents.
- iii. Major political upheaval or natural disaster in the home country.
- iv. Involvement in a traumatic experience.

5. Appeals Process

- 5.1 Students will receive written notification of a decision regarding their refund application within 14 calendar days of receiving a valid student refund application. The student will also be provided with a copy of the UQC Student Grievance Resolution Process. Where any student disagrees with UQC's application of the Refund Policy and Procedure the student has 20 working days to submit an appeal using the UQC Student Grievance Resolution Process
- 5.2 The student's appeal is reviewed by the Senior Manager Operations and Services. Students will receive written notification of a decision regarding the outcome of the appeal, including any reasons for an appeal being denied.
- 5.3 If the appeal is denied the student is informed of their option to appeal to the Queensland Ombudsman. The student is informed that they have 10 working days to make an appeal to the Queensland Ombudsman and that they are required to inform UQC of their case number as proof of lodgement.
