

Great News!!

UQ College commence face-to-face English classes from Monday 14th February.

What does this mean for you?

International Students

Are you currently in Australia?

You must attend F2F classes from Monday 14th February. If you do not attend, you will be breaking your Student Visa conditions and your enrolment may be cancelled.

Are you still in your home country and want to continue studying online?

Online classes will continue to run for those students who wish to remain in their home country. Keep attending your online classes as per usual.

For those wishing to come to Australia as soon as possible please contact your Agent.

Are you still in your home country but want to come to Australia?

Start Planning your trip!

If you have already booked a flight to Australia, contact admissions@uqcollege.uq.edu.au to inform UQ College of your arrival date.

For further information visit Study Queensland pre-departure plan

Domestic Students

Tertiary Preparation Program (TPP) is only offered face-to-face. You must attend the campus to remain enrolled in the course.

VET programs are only delivered online – these will continue as per usual.

What does this mean for face-to-face classes?

Physical Distancing and mask wearing is encouraged in line with current government directives.

If you have any flu-like symptoms and/or you think you are a close contact, you are requested to stay at home and notify the college for further instructions via info@uqcollege.uq.edu.au